

THE

RAVEN

The Poe Booth

Welcome to our Winnipeg Fringe Festival, 2003
production of Edgar Allan Poe's – The Raven.

In the 'Bardic' tradition, we are proud to present to you a theatre adventure that could only be, a fringe show. Enjoy.

Cast and Crew

George Falconer: Producer & Performer

Dr. Roy Dudgeon: Lighting & Lighting Design

Kathy Clune: Production Assistant

Mike Martens: Carpenter

David Bravi: Graphics

The chair and the pictures used in this performance are available for purchase after the production at Heirloom Antiques, 124 King Street.

The Poe Booth wishes to extend our most profound thanks to:

Elsie Falconer, Kathy Clune, Mike Martens, Jeff Singer, Matthew Singer, Melissa McQuade, Eric Violago, James Williamson, Eamonn MacNeish, Janice Feuer, Chris Haduk, David Bravi, Joel Carleton, Duncan Falconer, Lisa Sansregret, Brian Drader, Ian Scott, Harry Nelken, Emile Clune, Steve McIntyre, Brian Shearer, Christian Augst, Scott McKay, Robert Slade, Matt Houle, Jacki Keon and the Manitoba Conservatory of Music and Art, the Print Guys, Nick Kowalchuk, Bertram Schneider, Emily Drake, Mike Plumridge, and all the Fringe Staff and wonderful Volunteers, Jan and Guy Wood at Heirloom Antiques, Richard Orlandini at Boralis Books, Vince at Stagelight and most of all Edgar Allan Poe.

We have kept the venue small in order to maintain the intimacy of this piece. Because this is a "Bring Your Own Venue", we count on the generosity of each and everyone of you to help recoup the cost of this room and these lights.

Thank you very much and enjoy the fringe!
