

The Ballad of Reading Gaol

By

C. 3. 3.

- Oscar Wilde (1854 - 1900): Irish writer and raconteur. He served two years hard labor (1895-1897) for committing homosexual acts.
- The Ballad of Reading Gaol: Was written in 1897 after Wilde's release from prison; first published February 13, 1898. It is Wilde's last work.
- C.3.3.: Was Wilde's cell number at Reading Gaol. In the original publication, Wilde's name was not given as the author.

* original title page