

STREET SEUSS

by Dave McConnell

Street Seuss was created, written and performed by Dave McConnell.

“Orlando has a lot more to offer than just ‘Boy Bands’ and ‘Theme Parks’.
I’m dying to show that to Winnipeg.”

Dave has performed at the Orlando Fringe Festival with Street Seuss (2001), and Street Seuss Deuce: the equal sequel (2002). Winning a Lillie Stoates Award for “Best Original Work”, Street Seuss has become an Orlando Fringe favorite. Dave is honored to represent his work, and Orlando in the Winnipeg Fringe Festival.

Dave would also like everyone to know that if you didn't enjoy this show, he would be happy to mow your lawn for you.

Thanks to:

Anyone
who I might have overlooked.
It's not that I don't love
you, it's that I forget shit.
Alcoholics do
that.

And thanks to you, the audience. I'll give you the best show I can.
I owe it to you.

*Oh, and a special thanks to Lyle
Moon. Lyle, I'm doing my best.
You told me what to do, and I'm trying my best, I swear.*

*"Never start a story on the moon.
Start your story picking a flower,
and end up on the moon.
Imagine what an interesting adventure that would be."*

*You're a brilliant man, teacher, performer, director and supervisor. More than that, you're a great friend, and example. Thanks again Lyle.
I'll see you on the Moon.*
